

Containerized BESS tender price in Canada 2025

Overview

As of most recent estimates, the cost of a BESS by MW is between $200,000 and $450,000, varying by location, system size, and market conditions. This translates to around $200 - $450 per kWh, though in some markets, prices have dropped as low as $150 per kWh.

The ESS Price Forecasting Report provides a five-year forecast for the price of a DC battery container, including battery cells, modules, racking, and additional balance of system needed for a containerized battery system. The Q1 2025 report covers pricing outlook updates through March 2025.

According to BloombergNEF's recently published Energy Storage System Cost Survey 2024, the prices of turnkey energy storage systems fell 40% year-on-year from 2023 to a global average of US$165/kWh. The research firm said this was the highest annual drop since its survey launched in 2017. Multiple.

In the first quarter of 2025, the Canadian Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS) market is experiencing unprecedented growth, driven primarily by technological advancements and favorable government policies. The momentum in the market is underpinned by the increasing integration of renewable energy.

Industry data reveals current BESS project costs range between $280,000 to $480,000 per MWh installed, depending on configuration and ancillary component. When evaluating battery energy storage system (BESS) prices per MWh, think of it like buying a high-performance electric vehicle – the battery. How much storage capacity does a Bess container have?

Driven by bigger cells sizes and other technology advances, the industry is also increasingly seeing 20-foot BESS containers with 5MWh storage capacity from system integrators and vertically integrated battery manufacturers. Some are even exceeding that capacity, such as CATL with its 6.25MWh Tener solution.

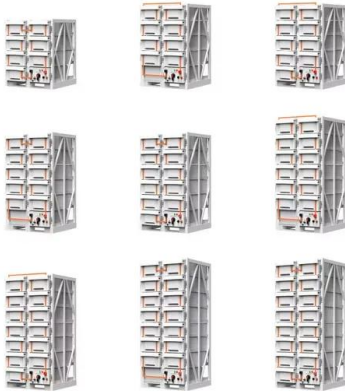

How much does Bess cost?

The cost of BESS has fallen significantly over the past decade, with more precipitous drops in recent years: This is nearly a 70% reduction in three years, owing to falling battery pack prices (now as low as $60-70/kWh in China), increased deployment, and improved efficiency.

How much does a Bess DC block cost?

Similarly, BNEF found in its annual survey that BESS DC blocks in 4MWh or larger enclosures came in 27% cheaper on average than those in the 2MWh to 4MWh range, at US$128/kWh versus US$176/kWh. The firm's survey found that the price differential is expected to continue into 2025.
