

Sao tome and principe energy storage enterprise improvement plan policy released

Overview

What is the Emae restructuring plan?

A restructuring plan for the national electricity utility, EMAE, is underway to address financial, operational, and governance challenges, while scaling up renewable energy production and reducing non-technical losses.

What is Emae's energy reform strategy?

The government is committed to the comprehensive reform strategy for the energy sector, which aims to address the current crisis. The strategy is centered on implementing the Least Cost Development Plan (LCDP) and the Management Improvement Plan (MIP), in order for EMAE to achieve full cost recovery.

Does STP have a power purchase agreement?

In late 2023, STP signed a Power Purchase Agreement with a foreign company to boost electricity generation. The company would install and operate diesel generators (phase one), dual generators for LNG/diesel (phase two), and solar panels (phase three), with generation capacity adding up to 50 MW, about 3 times current electricity demand.
