Overview

Where can I find information about energy in South Sudan?

Find relevant data on energy production, total primary energy supply, electricity consumption and CO2 emissions for South Sudan on the IEA homepage. Find relevant information for South Sudan on energy access (access to electricity, access to clean cooking, renewable energy and energy efficiency) on the Tracking SDG7 homepage.

Does South Sudan have a real energy infrastructure?

The situation in South Sudan, the world's newest country, is unique. It does not have any real existing energy infrastructure.

Is result based financing a solution to South Sudan's energy crisis?

Result Based Financing (RBF) to accelerate access to energy services, an instrument commonly used in other markets to bridge the affordability gap, is also lacking in South Sudan. The energy sector's policy and enabling regulatory environment is still in its formative stage, especially for the of-grid sector.

Do health institutions in South Sudan have access to electricity?

About 30% of South Sudan health institutions do not have access to electricity. However, there were disparities where 15.0% of health institutions in urban areas lacked access to electricity compared to 33.2% of health institutions in rural areas reported lacking electricity access.

Is South Sudan a good place to buy energy?

Based on independent sources from consumers and suppliers, most of-grid energy products available in South Sudan are neither standardised nor quality verified. This hinders uptake, as many households reported quality to be a main factor in their purchase decision, especially in urban areas.

How has South Sudan impacted its energy security?

Indeed, the situation plunged South Sudan into a political, economic and humanitarian disaster . The dependence of South Sudan on its regional partners for the importation of processed fuel constitutes another challenge undermining its energy security . East African countries rely on each other to guarantee their oil supply.
